ABOUT THIS VERSION OF THE BOOK

This book originally came out as a Limited Edition. There had been a calling for it and the intention was to put something out to abate the calling!

What happened is people bought it and their lives changed. I would be receiving testimonial after testimonial, story after story, of lives that were changing as they came into contact with this book.

Readers were feeling soothed in their lives, that everything would be alright, and things would get taken care of. They would notice things about themselves and their lives that they hadn't noticed previously. They would understand the patterns of what was happening, and more effectively and easily change them. Most of the time this would be without even needing to think about it. This book would put them in connection with "who they are". And, they were seeing manifestations; synchronistically and powerfully.

I encourage you to focus on the essence and vibration of this book. That is, and always will be, the most important thing in anything.

This book is available on various digital formats also.

INTRODUCTION

In recent years, the "Law of Attraction" has become more and more popular. It could be said that it is due to the various products and books that have been released. It could also be said that these products are as a result of a growing consciousness and awareness. It can only happen as a result of a vibrational match and for a calling for it. Thank you for your calling for this book that you are reading.

There is no coincidence you are reading this book.
Something comes into our lives when we are ready for it.

This book will clarify and demystify "Law of Attraction" for you. You will understand Law of Attraction like you never have before. You will understand that it is really about the harmony that you have within you that affects your own vibration, which affects what you attract into your life. As you change your signal, the Universe - via the Law of Attraction - responds accordingly to you.

After reading this book, you will more clearly understand this dynamic relationship between you and the Universe. You will be able to better understand the thoughts and emotions that you have, and have had, that have led to what has happened, and is happening.

This book will explain Law of Attraction in a very 'pure' sense. There is much material out there which tries to mention the Law of Attraction though which include many non-essential aspects which are not necessary in understanding and mastering the Law of Attraction. This book will look to explain Law of Attraction in the most pure way and without diluting it with aspects which are non-essential.

Enjoy the experience of this book. Not only will you be taking in the information from the book on a conscious level, it will be working with you on an unconscious level as well as a spiritual and vibrational level. It is not about the words that you read, it will also be about the transformation within you.

Do not be surprised if by the time you finish this book, that things start happening in your life. Coincidences and synchronicities happen, manifestations occur, things 'release' themselves, and you feel more of a connection to everything else.

Do not be surprised if there is a lightness within you before the end. Also, in your understanding of the dynamics of the relationship that you live in within this Universe, there may be a sense of peace and a knowingness that all is well. From this book and any subsequent others you will understand the dynamics in play in your life and in others in your life.

This book has been titled "Find You, and You Find Everything" because it truly is about who you are. You will discover what this means as you journey on the trail of light beautifully arranged by this book. As you discover more about yourself, you will find that your connection to everything that you want is so much more pronounced. You will find that everything that you want is ready to enter your life and it just requires you being in tune with it, and the best way of doing that is in being in harmony with yourself.

Whilst the subtitle of the book is "The Secrets to the Law Of Attraction", the Law of Attraction has always been available to you. Throughout the ages, various doctrines, disciplines and cultures have believed that there are 'secrets' to the Universe that are being withheld from you.

There are no true secrets. You receive whatever you are resonant to. You are an aspect of the Universe and it has always been willing to share anything that you ever wanted to ask it, and it always does. This book will just reveal those 'secrets'.

You will learn perspectives and viewpoints about your relationship with yourself and the Universe which will greatly impact your life and in you getting all the things that you want. If you know that 'secret', you know it all. Find You, and You Find Everything.

The path already exists and it is perfectly formed. When you are on it, you know by the joy that you experience.

YOUR ABUNDANCE IS HERE, AND ALWAYS HAS BEEN

The Abundance You Desire is a Magnification of the Abundance you Have

Abundance is a favourite topic for so many who want ‘more’ in their lives. After all, as you will discover in this book, expansion is something that is very natural to you.

Many look at the lack in their lives and are blind to all the gifts that exist in their present moments. They look outside of their now for something else, and forsake all the true ‘richness’ that is already existing in their now moment.

In realising the abundance that is in your life, more abundance finds its way to you.

In having ones attention to what is wrong, or how things are not perfect, they offer a vibration of dissatisfaction. And of course, if they are offering that vibration, how can what they want enter their reality when it is a different vibration? It cannot. If you are offering the signal and frequency of dissatisfaction, satisfaction, prosperity, and abundance cannot enter your life – it will not be a match to the signal.

You attract matches to the vibration you offer.

It is by realising your true abundance in your now, that you access the abundance that you are wanting. By your attention to what you DO have, you offer the vibration of attracting more.

You may say: “Oh, but I don’t have abundance. How would I get it?” The answer is by finding things you can appreciate in your life. By noticing the things that you do have, you offer the vibration for more.

It’s not what you have, it’s the vibration you offer about what you have, by your attention to it.

Do you have the ability to feel like a millionaire with what you do have? If you are single (or even if you are not), can you feel love within yourself as if your soulmate is already in your life? If you want to develop your body, can you FEEL as if you have that body? That is what it is about. It does not matter about which context, it is about your ability to live and embody what you want within you. The Universe cannot resist or deny that and by universal law, your physical world reflects your inner world.

The Universe can provide you all that you want, but you have to be offering the signal for it. Through your vibration, you have to be saying to the Universe: “I am already that. And if I do not have the physical manifestation it will be fine because I KNOW I am it.” This is a very strong signal and the Universe cannot resist it. It has to provide the manifestation.

Abundance is an inherent quality of the Universe. It exists in every iota and every molecule in all that is. When there is lack, it is due to the resistance of the natural abundance that is available and flowing through everything that you see around you.

LOVE, YOU, AND THE UNIVERSE

True love is open to you as quickly as your ability to be open to it...

Love is one of the most keenly asked about topics (Money is another, and we have already talked about abundance!). Why is it such an important topic?

It can be said that love is predominant everywhere in the Universe. Not necessarily just a romantic love, but an energy, an affection, an interconnectedness, and much, much more. Some would say that 'love' binds everything together.

I would say that everything is about energy, vibration, and love itself is an energy and a vibration.

Love is an Indicator of Your Relationship to Who You Are

The reason that love is so important to so many is because often love is the surface level word that people are aware of that is an indication of their connectedness to who they are – to the aspect of them which is non-physical or spiritual.

The energetic or spiritual aspect of a person being that which the body is a physical extension of. That which is so much more than the physical body and 'who' you really are. When we feel love, it is an indicator of the alignment of our thoughts, actions and more – our vibration – to 'who' we are. What
